
Activity Details for:
Science National Honor Society/
Science Club

For Use: Co-curricular planning

Division: High School

Last Update: May 7, 2012

Category: Student Life

Purpose: To help students in planning involvement with co-curricular activities; time management; prioritization of involvement; leadership development; commitment

Activity description

Students work to promote science.

Role description

Four Science National Honor Society officers are elected each year, other members select activities to be involved in

Time commitment

Officers – two meetings per month

Other members one meeting per month

Time outside of meetings depends on activity but should be at least 10 hours for SNHS service hours

Days out of school none

Other details

Science club is open to all high school students who have an interest in science.

SNHS is selected by committee from student applicants each spring.